

Alicia Morales
Physical Security Consultant

Business Protection Specialists is pleased to announce that Alicia Morales has joined the team as a Physical Security Specialist. Alicia started her career in the Marine Corps and has nearly ten years of experience in security, including her most recent position as a Physical Security Specialist with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Alicia brings a wealth of knowledge in the development and implementation of security policies and procedures for critical federal facilities. She has successfully directed efforts to mitigate risks and implement security best practices thereby reducing vulnerabilities to infrastructure, personnel, and critical information.

Prior to joining DHS, Alicia worked in the private sector managing and training federal employees and contractors in security awareness and active shooter response. BPS clients will greatly benefit from her qualifications and experience in risk management, physical security, crime prevention, emergency management and incident response. Alicia's numerous certifications and awards are a testament to her approach to security risk management and exceptional standards of excellence.

Please join us in welcoming Alicia. She can be reached at:
